

(Left)

HM3 Mark Sizemore asks the children at De Sour Ce Cazeau, Port-au-Prince to “open-wide” as he gives them a tasty medicine treat.
(March 15, 1997)

(Right)

HM3 Michael Williams (right) reaches for the scissors as he assists LT Nancy Moya (Left) who is treating a 4-month-old orphan at Notre Maison, a local orphanage for disabled children in Port-au-Prince.
(March 5, 1997)

(Left)

LT Wendy Stouder prepares a perscription for a curious father and daughter in her 6 x 6 ft. pharmacy during a recent Humanitarian Mission to a small farm community located near Northwest Bypass just outside the Port-au-Prince area.

(March 15, 1997)